

The Place Where You Earned Your Name

Simon Kay
arr. Dave Camlin

♩ = 100

In Work ing-ton, White ha venCock er-mouth, Cock er-mouth town rain's com ing

In Work ing-ton, White ha venCock er-mouth town, the sun's com ing up and therain's com ing down;

In Wor king ton White ha-venCock er-mouth town, the sun's com ing up and therain's com ing down

In Wor king ton White ha-venCock er-mouth town, the sun's com ing up and therain's com ing down; you do - wn you'll keep com-ing round, place where you earned your name

5

may move a-way, but you'll keep com-ing round place where you earned your name

may move a-way, but you'll keep com-ing round place where you earned your name

may move a-way, but you'll keep com-ing round to the place where you earned your name

9

Oo...
Oo...
Oo...
Oo...

13

Oo... place where you earned your name
Oo... place where you earned your name
Oo... place where you earned your name
Oo... place where you earned your name

Verse 1

You play / 'Uppies and Downies' and support 'The Town'
 You / drink in the Apple Tree, Oak and The Crown
 You / try to walk home but you keep falling down
 In the / place where you earned your name

Verse 2

You go / busking in Keswick, and dancing around
 And the / people walk by, and some laugh and some frown
 But you / take all their money and you drink it all down
 In the / place where you earned your name

Verse 3

And / day trips to Allonby lying on the sand
 The / water is freezing but the weather is grand You've got a / Twentyman's ice cream that's melting in your hand
 In the / place where you earned your name

Verse 4

And / Sellafield sunsets are fiery and bright
 The / blaze across Scotland if flooding the night
 It's / all going wrong and it's all going right
 In the / place where you earned your name